DATE OF INFO. 25X1A

25X1X

1. Two Peruvian officers, actively engaged in aiding a military coup scheduled to overthrow the Odria government on or before 28 July, have been exiled from Peru. They are Major Luis Conterno of the Peruvian Air Force and Captain Jorge Rosas of the Peruvian Infantry, who are reported to have traveled from Bogota on 14 July 1949 en route to Caracas via TACA Airlines. They had come to Colombia from Panama. 25X1X
2. [REDACTED] the revolutionary plan calls for Odria to be replaced by Lt. Col. Miguel Aguerrevere, present Peruvian Military Attache in Colombia.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. In February 1949, a Comandante Conterno, Chief of the 31st Attack Squadron, was reported as one of a group of Arista sympathizers allegedly planning a revolutionary plot. No actual plot was uncovered at the time, but the government saw fit to give a warning to the individuals suspected of being involved.
